

UNITHREAD EXPORTS

India's Craft. The World's Closet

ABOUT US

Unithread Exports is a women's wear export brand specializing in contemporary and culturally inspired apparel. We blend modern trends with timeless craftsmanship, offering high-quality, ethically produced garments that cater to global markets. Our collections range from everyday essentials to statement pieces, designed to empower women with confidence and elegance.

MISSION

At UNITHREAD, to craft exceptional women's wear that celebrates Indian craftsmanship along with modern vision that elevates sustainable fashion, and connects cultures across borders through manufacturing and seamless global exports

VISION

To be a globally respected leader in women's apparel exports—where every thread tells a story of quality, style, and conscious innovation from India to the world

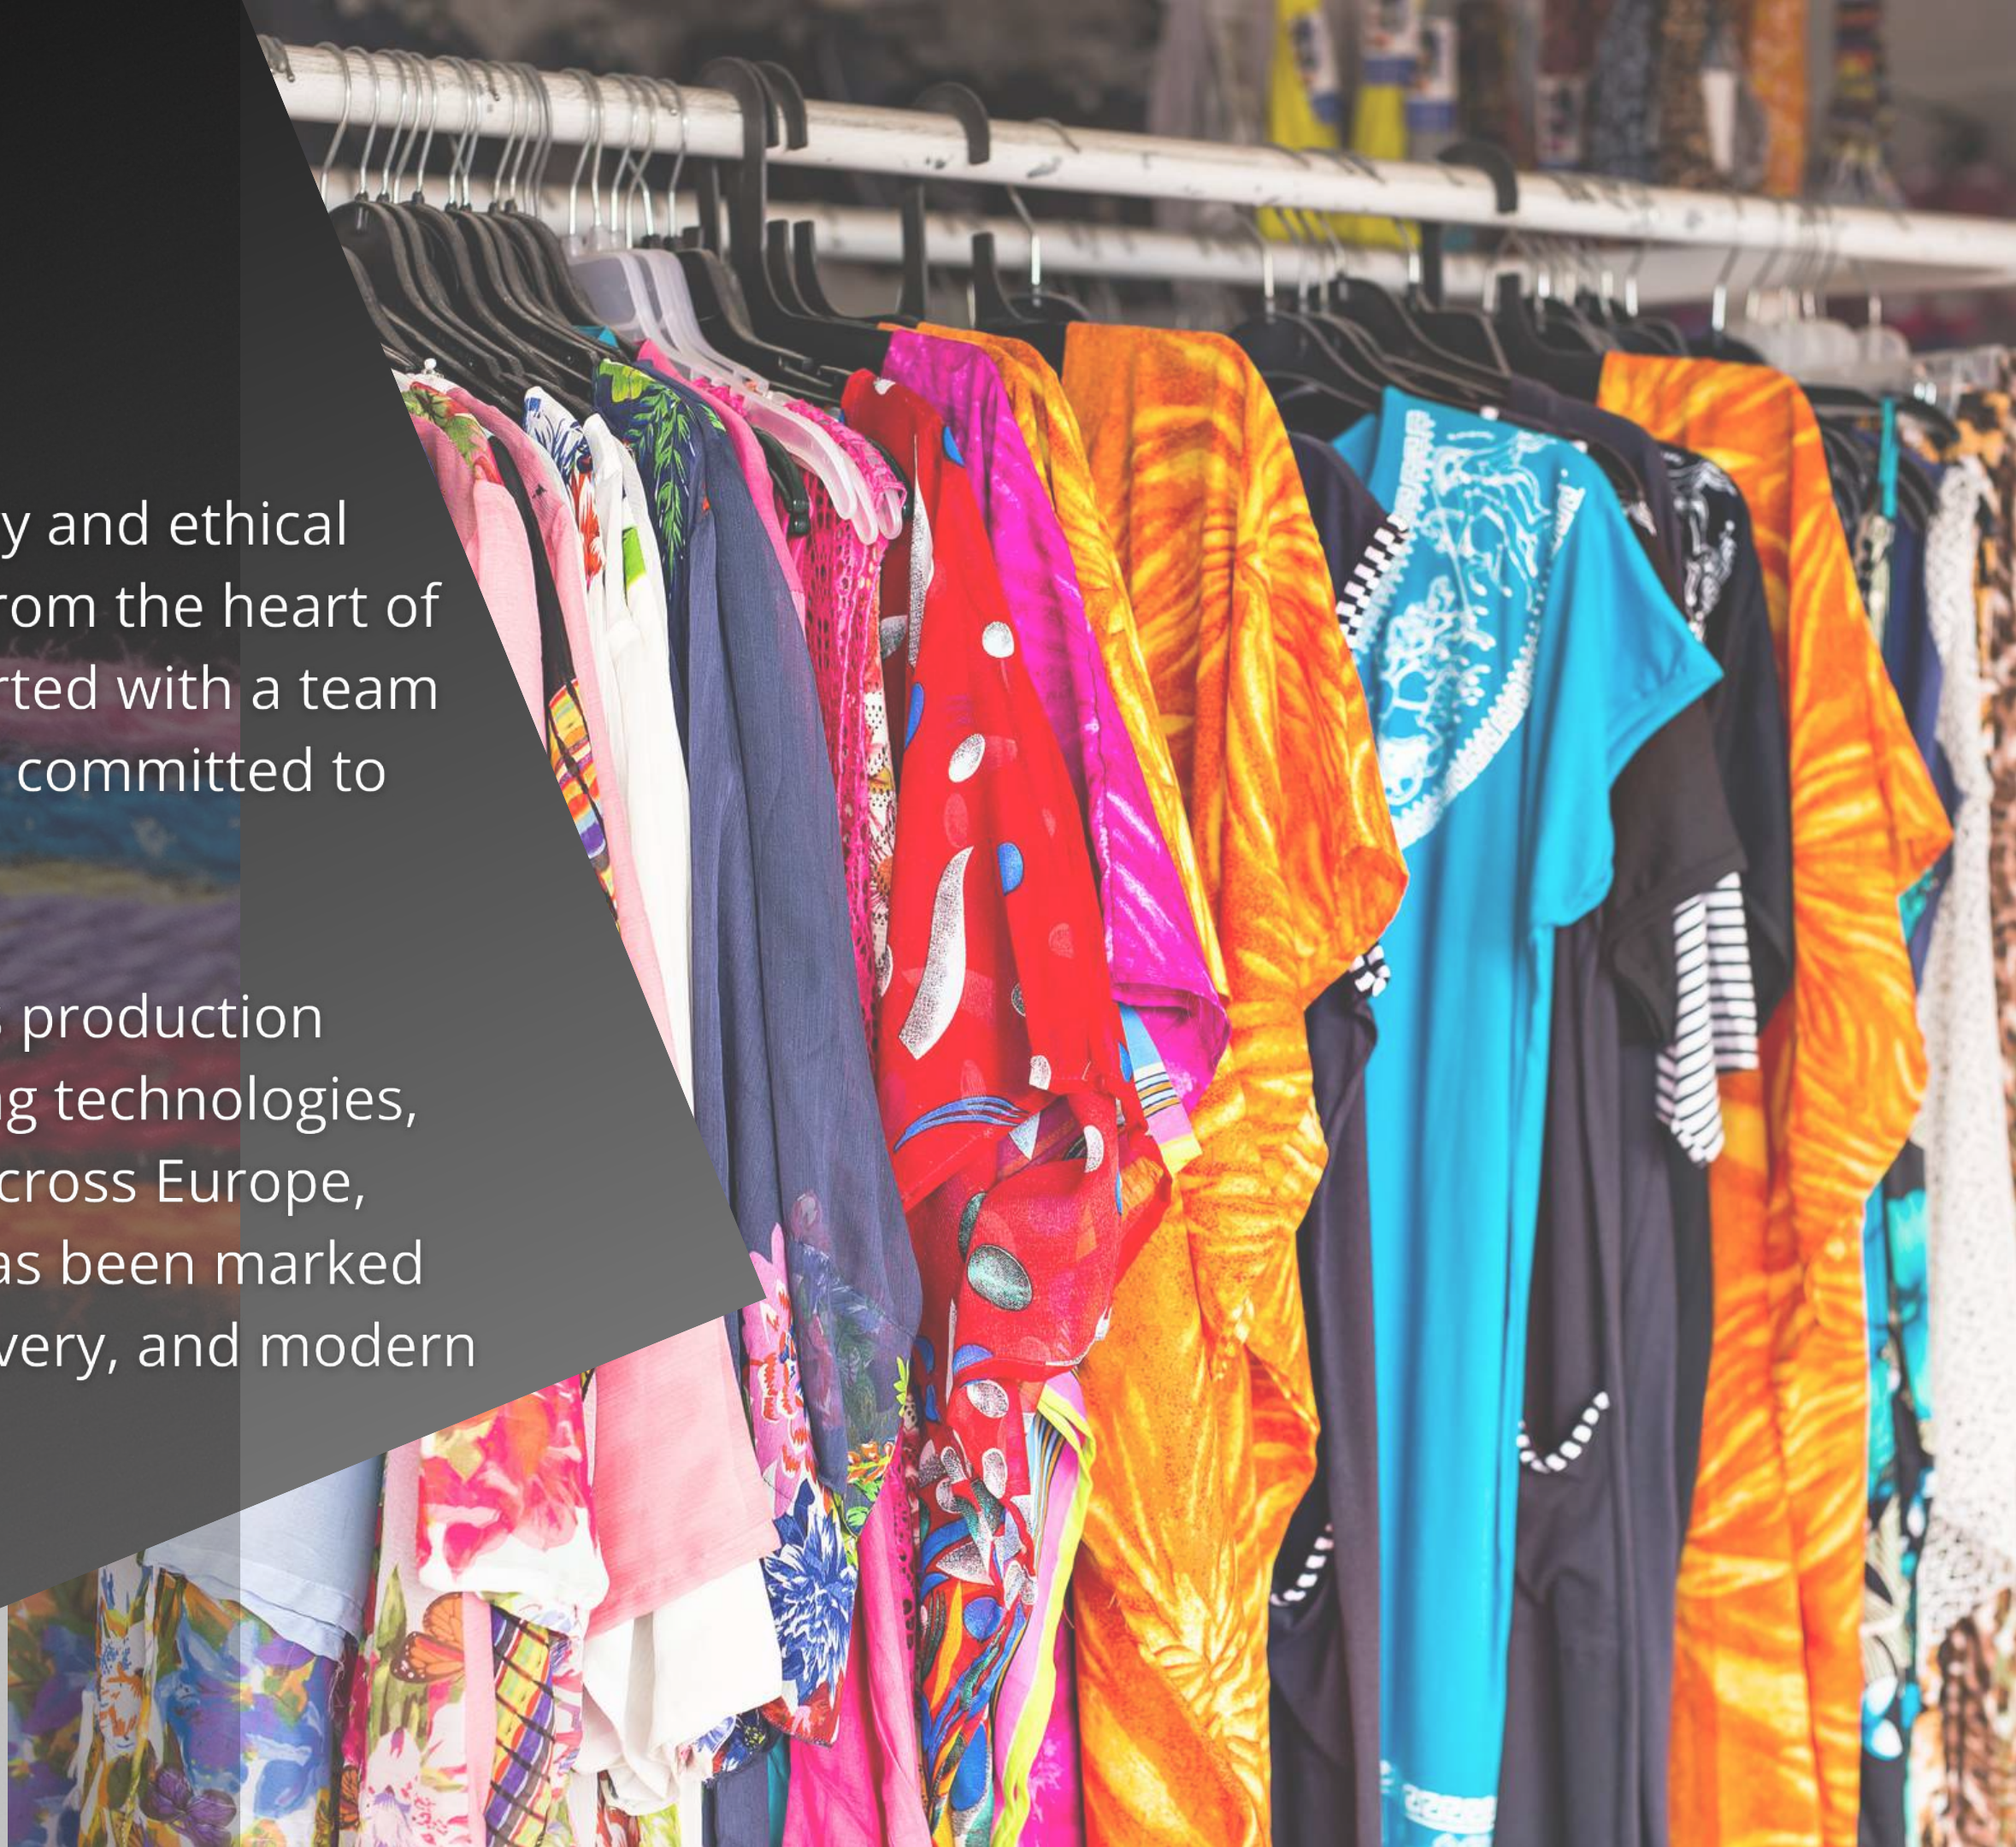

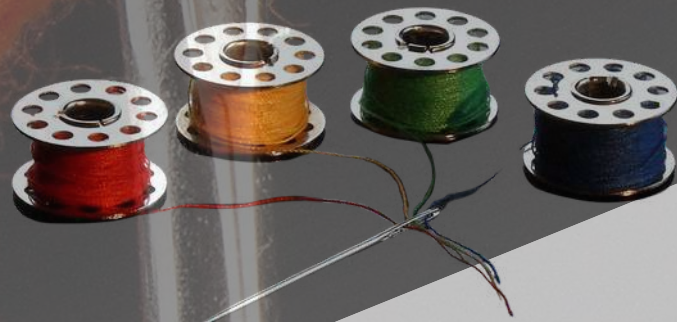

HISTORY

Unithread Exports began as a contemporary and ethical venture in women's wear manufacturing. From the heart of India's textile-rich heritage, our journey started with a team of passionate artisans and industry experts committed to quality, design, and on demand production

Over the years, Unithread has expanded its production capabilities, adopted modern manufacturing technologies, and built strong relationships with clients across Europe, Africa, Asia and Middle East. Our journey has been marked by a consistent focus on quality, timely delivery, and modern practices.

COMPANY GOAL

- Position Unithread Exports as a global authority in women's apparel manufacturing and exports
- Build lasting partnerships with buyers and brands across the globe
- Deliver uncompromising quality from design to dispatch
- Exceed customer expectations by offering dependable production timelines, superior product quality, and personalized service, positioning Unithread Exports as a go-to partner for women's fashion sourcing
- Champion "Made in India" globally

Future Plan

- Global Market Penetration Expand our presence in key fashion hubs such as Europe, North America, and the Middle East through strategic collaborations and trade exhibitions
- Women-Led Workforce Development Establish training and employment programs that empower rural women artisans, strengthening both community and supply chain resilience
- Obtain Global Certifications, Fair Trade, and other compliance marks to enhance brand credibility and attract ethically focused partners

A photograph of a clothing store display. In the foreground, a white long-sleeved button-down shirt hangs prominently on a wooden hanger. Behind it, several other shirts in shades of pink, light green, and white are hanging on similar hangers. To the left, a green vine plant with heart-shaped leaves is climbing a wooden post. In the background, there are more racks of clothing, including a pink and white patterned jacket. A small potted plant sits on a shelf above the racks. A sign with the word 'NEW' is visible on the right. The overall lighting is bright and clean.
